On behalf of the MCA of Ohio Trustees, I'm proud to welcome you to our Convention and Trade Show in Columbus! It's our annual opportunity to gather mechanical and sheet metal signatory contractors from across the region for a unique offering of education, advocacy and entertainment! I encourage you to join your colleagues, our national association leaders, labor partners and manufacturers and suppliers to promote and improve our industry.

We have a full schedule of timely sessions exclusively designed for signatory contractors, and a special Leadership and Planning Program for Field Leaders and Project Managers. Back this year is also our highly rated Cyber Security Program for your company IT Specialists.

In addition to this stellar program of education, our manufacturers, suppliers and service providers will be on hand with exhibits so that you can see all the latest and greatest from the industry's top names.

And we didn't leave out the entertainment! At our Statehouse Gala you'll be able to experience the grandeur of the Ohio Statehouse in a whole new way! This gala will feature live music, private tours, drinks and hors d'oeuvres and the event will culminate with a special dinner in the Atrium featuring a VERY exciting special guest! We'll also enjoy an acoustic set from MCAO's favorite band, Stranger Than Fiction, at an exclusive afterparty at the Hyatt!

MCAO has been the voice of specialty contractors in the Ohio legislature, agencies and courts since the 1960's but we can't do it without YOU! Please take advantage the incredible education program we've put together for you and enjoy entertainment and industry networking at the exhibits. You can meet and hear from your state and federal elected officials while the MCAO Trustees and Consultants get you up to speed on all the important projects and legislative initiatives we're spearheading in Columbus and in DC for the betterment of the entire industry!

Looking forward to celebrating with you in Columbus!

A best-selling author, coach and speaker,

Kwame Christian is the Director of the American Negotiation Institute and a thought leader in the field of negotiation and conflict resolution. Finding Confidence in Conflict will show you how to handle these negotiations and difficult conversations using the Compassionate Curiosity Framework. This framework designed to guide you through all of your difficult conversations, both at work and at home. We often make the mistake of assuming that our primary barriers to success in difficult conversations are strategic and tactical when the true issues are emotional and psychological. This book utilizes the latest psychological research to help you to overcome these barriers and will also give you the confidence you need to engage in these difficult conversations persuasively and authentically. General Session I: Climate Change and ESJ

Speaker: Mike Born, Shumaker

With 30 years of experience, Mike Born has participated in and represented clients through regulatory development and enforcement trends throughout multiple administrations at both state and federal levels. During this session you will learn how consumer demands and shareholder activism are pushing companies to increasingly respond to expectations for businesses to address their CO2 footprint, environmental justice, and related social responsibilities in their long-term planning and their day-to-day operations. Consequently, businesses are pushing these issues “down” to suppliers, business partners, and contractors. This discussion will explore the demands your next customer may impose on your jobs, the information they may request you provide, and what you can do to prepare for this brave new “woke” world.
